Hollywood Lives

Carmen Garcia is an actress. She comes from Spain. At the start of her career she appeared in Spanish films but he makes American films too. She lives in Hollywood but she often visits Spain, where she sees her family. Carmen travels a lot and likes visiting tropical islands, where she can sunbathe and swim. She likes horse riding and she has got a horse called Desert Rose. She goes riding at the weekend. While she's making films she sometimes goes riding but this isn't very often. She can speak Spanish, English, Greek, and Italian fluently. Actually, Carmen isn't married so she hasn't got any children. Although she is single, she isn't looking for a boyfriend right now. When she becomes older she wants to have one or two children. At the moment, she is very busy and working hard on a lot of films. She is looking forward to taking a break later this year. She told our magazine, "I'm excited about having a holiday and seeing my family and friends back in Spain. I'm going there next September since the weather will be nice.
